Meandering Along the Main Stem

By WASH FAYETTE

Glen Wiley, well remembered by many friends here, who was a former circulation manager for the Record-Herald and is now a pilot with the U. S. Army Air Corps, told in a letter he sent to Marion Rife here, that a few weeks ago he was a sky visitor above Washington C. H. but that no one here knew about it.

Wiley related that he was handling one P-47 in a flight of 16 such planes on a cross country mission between Buffalo, N. Y., and Indianapolis, Ind., when he passed over Washington C. H. shortly after midday. The planes were up about 15,000 feet and Wiley said he doubted if anyone here could see them.

According to his letter he thinks his squadron which had been stationed for a time at a Massachusetts base, is about to be sent overseas for combat service, but he does not know just when or where and wouldn't tell if he did. His letter indicated that there was every evidence of an early departure.

He wanted to be remembered to all his friends here and ended his missive with his old familiar, "be seeing you soon."

Every time I see Ray Harris (Prof. F. R. Harris to you) who was superintendent of schools at Greenfield for a great many years (and a good one too) I recall that years ago when I first met Ray, he was secretary of the Tri-County Chautauqua which for years gave outstanding entertainment at Chautauqua Park in the north edge of Greenfield.

I handled some advertising and publicity for Ray, and each year attended the Tri-County Chautauqua at least once while it was under way, going down on the D. T. & I. railroad and returning the same way.

I recall one time William Jennings Bryan was the speaker while I was there, and the crowd was so big that only the clear-toned Bryan could have made them all hear.

Ray was a teacher in the Greenfield Schools at that time, and later kept climbing up until he became superintendent, and then the Board of Education would not let him go until he resigned.

Ray is a "globe trotter", has traveled more than almost anyone in this part of the U. S., and is one of the most interesting speakers in the state.

Ray always took an interest in things educational, and was largely responsible for the success of the Tri County Chautauqua for so many years, as well as the success of the Greenfield Schools over a long period of years.

A glimpse into the local canning plants shows that a large number of persons in all walks of life have displayed their patriotism and given full evidence of backing up the boys at the front by helping with the pack of corn, tomatoes and beans.

Not only are there business and professional men and others, but there are many women who are helping out, not because they need the money, but because they wish to do their bit during the war emergency.

Also a large number of farmers and farm hands, who are required to wait with loads of corn for the plants, are utilizing their time by helping out in the plants.

The response generally has been so good that as a result large quantities of produce that would have spoiled, is being saved, and a few days' additional assistance will make the crops safe.

Here's three cheers and a bouquet of roses for all of you good folks who have been helping out at a time when help meant the saving of vital food.

REDS DRIVE ON ACROSS RUSSIA TO SET NEW TRAP

Germans Slaughtered During Spectacular Advances Toward Dnieper River

MAIN NAZI BASE TAKEN

Soviet Forces Seeking To Cut Main Railroad Line in Ukraine to Kiev

LONDON, Sept. 16.—(AP)—Battering their way across the central Ukraine toward the vital Dnieper River defense wall 70 miles to the west, Red army columns apparently were aiming their main thrust today against the Kiev-Poltava-Lozovaya railway, severance of which would isolate German armies to the north and south.

Capture yesterday of Nezhin, a main bastion of Nazi defenses before the Dnieper barrier, already has cut all but one rail link between the enemy forces operating in the central and southern sectors of the Ukraine.

If the Red army spearhead can place itself astride the Kiev-Poltava-Lozovaya line before the autumn rains make large-scale military operations impossible, the Germans in the south would face the possibility of another defeat as costly as that at Stalinograd.

Premier Joseph Stalin celebrated the fall of Nezhin in another order of the day, terming it "the most important center of the Germans' defense on the road to Kiev."

The Germans left 3,000 dead on the Nezhin battlefield, many prisoners were captured and

358 JAPS DOWNED IN 37-DAY FIGHT

American Losses Total Only 93 Planes

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—(AP)—American fliers shot down 358 Japanese planes in 37 days and "practically eliminated" enemy air opposition prior to the final capture of Munda air field in the Solomons on Aug. 7, the Navy reported today.

The Japanese losses included 259 fighter planes, 60 twin-engine bombers, 23 dive bombers and 16 float planes. These, the Navy said, accounted for all except 20 or 30 of the enemy's planes in the Solomons area.

American losses were 71 fighters and 22 bombers.

ITALIAN HARI-KARI!

LONDON, Sept. 16.—(AP)—The German-controlled Italian news agency reported today in a Rome broadcast that Marshal Ugo Cavallero, former chief of the Italian General Staff, had committed suicide.

HITLER JOLTED ON TWO SIDES IN WORLD WAR

By The Associated Press
Grim news for the Germans came from two vital war fronts today—Italy and Russia—as the U. S. 5th Army hurled the Nazis back from the Salerno bridgehead and Soviet troops captured the big Black Sea naval base at Novorossisk in the Caucasus.

The fall of Novorossisk, long and bitterly defended by the Germans, threw the entire Nazi position in the Caucasus into jeopardy and probably meant that the Germans would soon be forced to retreat across Kerch Strait into the Crimea.

On the Italian front, Lt. Gen. Mark W. Clark announced that the American 5th Army, after eight days of bloody fighting against German counterattacks, has now definitely secured the invasion bridgehead at Salerno, 20 miles south of Naples.

Yanks and Aussies Smash Through Nip Defenses In Surprise Attack

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN THE SOUTHWEST PACIFIC, Sept. 16.—(AP)—Backing the Japanese into a death trap, Allied jungle troops have battered through pillboxes, trenches and machinegun nests with the aid of artillery and planes to bring nearer the fall of the big air base of Lae, New Guinea.

East of Lae, Australians are only two miles from the center of the coastal town and are about to overrun the prized Malahang airfield.

New Approach Sought To 1944 Food Problem

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—(AP)—Both the White House and Congress took up the 1944 food output problem for minute explanation today, and perhaps some action to insure an adequate diet for the nation besides meeting huge foreign commitments.

Marvin Jones, war food administrator, accepted an invitation to outline for the House agriculture committee Monday his ideas for next year's farm program.

Chairman Fulmer (D-NC) said the committee and the farmers want to know "just who from now on will have the definite power" over the food output.

The food subject occupied the attention of President Roosevelt who met with his advisers and with leaders of the major farm organizations yesterday.

A 1944 program involving a somewhat lower level of guaranteed farm prices—and hence fewer government subsidies—may be the outgrowth of those discussions.

The farm leaders brought from the presidential meeting assurance, they said, that subsidies—which most of them oppose—would be used sparingly.

This assurance may indicate that the administration is planning to make some changes in its price support program.

The government aimed to

Invasion of Balkans By Allies Looms as Two Islands Seized

LONDON, Sept. 16.—(AP)—Allied occupation of two island outposts to the Balkans, in a move strikingly similar to operations which preceded the invasion of Italy, was reported in dispatches from Ankara today.

One account said the Greek island of Samos and the Dodecanese island of Lero, off the Turkish coast and about 150 miles north of German-held Crete, were occupied three days ago—the day before Great Britain's Ninth Army was reported to have embarked from its Middle East bases 400 miles across the Mediterranean in Syria and Transjordan.

Other dispatches to London newspapers reported both islands had been turned over to the Greek gendarmerie by Italian occupying forces after their country surrendered to the Allies.

Lero, 30 miles from the Turkish mainland, has a seaplane base and also was used by the Italians as a base for light naval craft. Samos is a much larger Greek island, 40 miles further north, with two of the best airdromes in the Aegean Sea.

There was no indication in the Ankara dispatches as to what type of forces were used in the reported occupation operations, but a Stockholm dispatch said the British Ninth Army, headed by Lt. Gen. W. H. Holmes, had sailed from its Middle East bases after two years of intensive training.

Mystery as to the exact whereabouts of the Ninth Army, coupled with reports of successes by Yugoslav guerrillas who are in touch with the Allied command, suggested a possible Allied invasion of the Balkans was shaping up.

Tending to strengthen reports of intensified activity in the Balkans was the Cairo report that Maj. Gen. Lewis H. Brereton, commander of all U. S. forces in the Middle East, had been transferred to an important new assignment. It was suggested he might now be with the Ninth Army.

German reinforcements, meanwhile, were reportedly being rushed to the Nish-Vardar line in the Balkans with the evident intention of strengthening the strategic base of Salonika, Grecian gateway to the Vardar valley.

SPECIAL FOOD COMMITTEE SUGGESTED AT MEETING

CHICAGO, Sept. 16.—(AP)—Creation by Congress of an independent committee on the nation's war food program, like the Baruch Rubber Committee was suggested today at the opening of the National Food Conference by Wheeler McMillen of Philadelphia, editor of the Farm Journal.

This means Selective Service will be called upon to furnish upward of a million men by December 31, since army spokesmen testified yesterday that inductions will vary from 145,000 to 175,000 a month for the rest of 1943 to build up an army of 7,700,000 men.

Senatorial opponents of the father draft gave ground today before the unanimous testimony of military leaders that the armed forces will have to put nearly a half million family heads into uniform this year to make victory certain.

While Senator Wheeler (D-Mont) remained publicly confident that he can win approval next week of legislation to postpone the induction of pre-Pearl Harbor fathers until January 1, there were signs that the high command's opposition had made inroads into the ranks of the bill's supporters.

THE BRITISH EIGHTH ARMY has taken the railroad junction and port of Bari (•) in a 65-mile push up the east coast from Brindisi. This places them 100 miles from the Naples area. Cosenza (•), about 120 miles from Lt. Gen. Clark's forces, also has fallen to the Allies. (International)

Bombing of Hitlerland From England Resumed; London Area Also Hit

By GLADWIN HILL

LONDON, Sept. 16.—(AP)—Berlin was bombed last night in a widespread Allied aerial assault which included a heavy raid on a vital rubber factory at Montluc in France and followed evening attacks on Paris aircraft plants and surrounding French air fields by U. S. Eighth Air Force squadrons making their first dusk flight.

It was the first attack on Berlin since the pre-dawn hours of September 4 and presumably was carried out by the RAF's swift Mosquito bombers which pummeled the German capital between the saturation attacks by fleets of four-engine craft.

Other RAF bombers struck at additional targets in northwest Germany, the Air Ministry announced.

Montluc, only 43 miles northwest of Vichy, was the principal target of the night-flying formations which concentrated on a factory supplying much needed tires for Hitler's war machine.

The Vichy radio said the town of Chartres, scene of one of the biggest battles of World War I, also was attacked, but the British announcement made no mention of this.

Last night's raid, first since September 6 attack on Munich, followed by a few hours the first after-dusk assault by a combined force of American Flying Fortresses, Liberators and Marauders which raided the Paris area. Here the Hispano-Suiza and round P-40 outfit—so the time didn't drag.

The scene of the party was a hall in a little mountain village where the fascist mayor and his pals used to count the squeeze before they skipped to Italy two leaps ahead of the American troops and a few local taxpayers armed with pitchforks. Our host was a dark, intent little sculptor, Argentino Pellegrino, who used to live in Astoria, N. Y. He wishes he still did.

"I came back here in 1939 to see my mother and father," said Pellegrino, who had an American citizenship certificate issued in Brooklyn June 8, 1937.

HOLD ON BEACH CLINCHED AFTER BLOODY BATTLE

'Bridgehead Secure, Not One Foot of Ground Will Be Given Up,' Says Clark

TROOPS LANDING DAILY

British Armies Pushing on For Junction With Yanks With Little Opposition

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN NORTH AFRICA, Sept. 16.—(AP)—Sweating British and American soldiers of the Fifth Army have lashed out at the Germans, driving them back from the Salerno bridgehead, and have clinched their foothold in Italy, Lt. Gen. Mark W. Clark announced today.

Gen. Clark launched his offensive this morning on the eighth day of the biggest battle yet fought in the Mediterranean, and threw the German armored forces back between the junction of the rivers Sele and Calore north of Altavilla in the central sector of the 27-mile front.

Simultaneously, Gen. Clark, in an order of the day to his troops, declared "our bridgehead is secure. Additional troops are landing every day and we are here to stay. Not one foot of ground will be given up."

Gen. Sir Bernard L. Montgomery's Eighth Army, racing northward toward Sapi, but 39 miles from the southern anchor of the Fifth Army's front, was mentioned by Clark, who said "in a matter of hours its presence will be felt by the enemy."

A military spokesman said the Germans were in flight in the Salerno sector for the first time since the original landings eight days ago and that this morning's assault was "the first serious offensive thrust we have been able to make since getting on the beaches."

Reinforcements pouring into the bridgehead during the past 48 hours made the drive possible, he said.

While the terrific fight raged back and forth under the thunder of 15-inch guns from British battleships and the artillery of lesser warships, Allied naval might poured a flood of reinforcements onto the area.

Lt. Gen. Mark W. Clark's fifth army, composed equally of British and Americans, was now the largest Allied force engaged in a single battle since the Mediterranean war started, and it was supported again yesterday by more than 2,000 sorties flown by the powerful northwestern African air force and separate raids by Middle East heavy bombers.

The entire Allied air force thus joined the struggle for the second straight day and hurled hundreds of tons of explosives upon the German's positions with earth-shaking barrages.

With unchallengeable control of the sea, the Allies exploited the advantage to the utmost by moving their mobile naval batteries up close to the blackened, smoking beaches and hurling the teeth of the Germans. The British battleships Valiant and Warspite with their 15-inch rifles joined in the bombardment.

Gen. Clark toured the fiery arena, cheering begrimed tomatoes and doughboys with his presence at the advanced positions where he told the troops that every soldier must fight to the last and that there must be no withdrawals.

Casualties in this seven-day battle have been the heaviest of any in the Mediterranean fighting.

At least four German divisions had been identified in the action against the 27-mile front, and more were being brought up. It was probable that as many as five had been employed in the all-out effort to smash the Allied grip.

The magnitude and fierceness of the battle undoubtedly was draining German strength even more rapidly than Marshal Erwin Rommel's effort in Africa.

Gen. Sir Bernard L. Montgomery's eighth army, racing

Yanks Go On Party In Sicily With Ex-Americans As Hosts

By HAL HOYLE

AN AMERICAN FIGHTER BASE IN NORTHERN SICILY, Sept. 8.—(Delayed)—(AP)—"Let's go on a party," someone said. So we found the nearest fascist meeting hall and threw one.

THE WAR TODAY

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

Revival of Fascist Regime Under Duce by Fuehrer Is Called Favor to Allies

One of the finest services Fuehrer Hitler could render the Allies is his revival of the fallen and dishonored Fascist regime under the control—or so the Nazis say—of its old-master, Mussolini. The United Nations had carried out their aim of smashing Fascism. The collapse of the incompetent and corrupt government exposed the Fascist rule to the world for exactly what it was—a dictatorship of gangsters who not only waged cowardly war on small and helpless countries, and against their grievously wounded neighbor, but made themselves and their mistresses vastly rich by plundering their own people.

The vast majority of Italians, while heart-broken over the straits to which their country has been reduced by Mussolini's wickedness and stupidity, nevertheless have been rejoicing that they finally have been rid of this nasty old man who personifies the "soft underbelly of Europe." No price is too great to purchase freedom from such a tyrant.

Now along comes the arch gangster of them all and sets up a little puppet government in the name of Fascism. He tries to give it life by announcing that Mussolini himself is the quivering of this revival—a statement which certainly requires ocular proof before the world will accept it as truth. At this writing the whereabouts of the ex-dictator is a great mystery, and it's even rumored that he's dead. If he is, the devil has a new pal.

Anyway, dead or half alive in his terror, the Duce's usefulness is about the same. This puppet "government", which is a stage-play affair, will drag out its brief existence, to provide a further striking demonstration of the folly of Mussolini's Fascist fancies. It will clinch the argument for the overthrow of Fascism and Nazism and the establishment of democracies in their stead.

Why is Hitler thus exhibiting Fascism in its nakedness and so taking the chance of weakening his own dictatorship? Well, there are several reasons, all of them understandable. In the first place he is, of course, playing for time, and so is trying to fool the world for a brief period into the idea that Fascism really isn't dead at all but is still a potent influence and a tower of strength to the Axis.

The all highest is particularly anxious to convey this impression to the Balkans. He is trying frantically to prevent further disaffection among his Balkan satellites, whose allegiance to the Axis has been due in considerable measure to Italian influence. He also wants to reassure his home front that all is still well in the Axis camp. And he figures that his ruse may provide some discouragement for Allied peoples.

It is a stunt which the Nazi dictator scarcely would try under normal circumstances. However, he is fighting with his back to the wall to save his own position. He can't have the slightest expectation of putting Fascism back on its feet permanently, or of preventing the Allied conquest of Italy.

Still, he is gambling that he may create a delay, and hesitation in the enemy camp, which may enable him to discover some fresh ray of hope. His position has become so grave that in un-

SCHOOLS HERE TO DISTRIBUTE RATION BOOK 4

Application To Be Made in Person from October 25 To 30 at Schools

Fayette Countians will receive Ration Book 4 through personal application at schools here from October 25 to 30, OPA officials announced today. Superintendent of City Schools A. B. Murray said that the schools here would be "glad to assist again in the program and we'll organize groups on much the same basis as before when the schools helped with the registering."

He added that instructions from the OPA here would be carried out when they were received and that schedules for registration would be published. He said that he received a letter from Kenneth dertaking this dramatic propaganda he really has little to lose and everything to gain.

Time is Hitler's ally right now. Already the autumn rains have begun in Russia, and this may give his desperate armies a respite from the disastrous hammering they are getting from the Red forces. Every passing day lessens the danger of an Allied invasion of western Europe, because of weather conditions. Each hour that he can hang on enables him to repair broken fences. Looking at the matter from that light, Hitler's scheme is a smart one.

Prison Terms for Those Who Violate Right Regulations

With state prison terms staring them in the face upon second conviction of violating the new Ohio "numbers" law, and heavy fines also provided for first convictions, effective next Monday, it is expected that the "numbers" racket which has flourished in this community and Ohio generally for many years, will be dealt a death blow.

BILLIE LEE DUNCAN SEVERELY BURNED

Billie Lee Duncan, five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Duncan of near Jeffersonville, today is recovering from severe burns on his face and hands received when he threw a can of coal oil into a stove containing blazing coal about 4 P. M. Tuesday.

It is thought that he was playing in the kitchen of his parents' home on the D. C. Pent farm on route 70 when the accident occurred. As he threw the coal oil in the stove, flames shot out and burned his face and hands, singeing his hair at the front of his head. Dr. O. L. Wiseman, physician at Jeffersonville, classified the burns as first and second degree, on the boy's face and hands. He declared that the burns were not deep enough to scar seriously and also said he felt that Billie's sight would not be impaired, although both eyes are red and swollen almost shut.

THERE'LL COME A TIME

Sometime, in the not far-distant future, this fair country of ours will extend the welcoming hand to old-boy "Industrial Reconversion." That will follow the great days when our armed forces will come back from fox-holes, rough seas, and out of the skies.

At the time our countrymen began to put on their uniforms, a million persons were employed in less than a half dozen industries engaged in the production of motors, steel, rubber, electrical equipment, petroleum refining.

These countrymen of ours will find their way back into all parts of the 48 States to their homes, and they will respond to the calls to reconvert the activities of those five industries. Small business has even more jobs to offer them than big business.

Farm employment holds the lead in the total number of jobs, where there are normally between ten and eleven million workers. The farms need all the help they can get when the time comes to welcome home the men from the battle fronts.

Statistics of employment before the war, showed 52,840,762 workers. Less than a month ago the Government had proposals under contemplation to expand the nation's rubber tire plants by spending 95 million dollars. The stepping up of gasoline and oil production to an all-time high is only a question of time.

It should be taken for granted that the Government will give the automobile industry the big green light, as soon as the war-guns are silenced. That will be the signal for local dealers, service stations, road builders, hotels, roadside stands—and all the countryside, with its vast stores of nature's products, to accept the new peace-time challenge and whoop-up for the post war revival that is confidently predicted by able public officials and executives who rank highest because they achieved success in private enterprise and mastered all the intricate problems of war production, which makes it possible to win the war.

ROADS A POST-WAR LIABILITY

"The daily deterioration of our American highways from normal use and natural causes, is piling up due to neglect, failure or inability to make repairs when needed," according to John S. Worley, Professor of Transportation Engineering, University of Michigan, who pointed out "that while this is a serious problem and one that cannot be too long delayed, still, it is definitely a part of America's contribution to the war effort. Manpower and materials are needed more elsewhere in the winning of the war," and he added:

"While it is a poor dollar economy to neglect to promptly repair the damage from frost-boils, cracks, shoulder wash-outs, etc. resulting from the hard winter of 1942-43, still the test of a nation's ability to win a war is not its money supply as much as its manpower and material supply. We will win this war and we will again put our highways in shape. The cost

NEW ORLEANS—The Swappers' Club, originated here recently by the United Service Organization, gives servicemen, merchant marines and civilians an opportunity to trade their white elephants for more desirable goods. Fred Dildine, assistant director, says men entering the armed forces leave at home many belongings they want to dispose of. So...

"A brood of chickens which tied one soldier's wife to their old home was traded for luggage so she could join her husband here," Dildine said. "We've swapped airplanes for autos and microscopes for farm instruments, but that chicken-luggage was tops in effectiveness."

of repairing them is directly chargeable to the war effort just as much so as the cost of planes, ships and tanks."

STARTING POINT

On the day the war ends, the time for stratospheric post-war planning will have run out. The time for action will have arrived. The responsibility of maintaining employment and stability will fall on the shoulders of hundreds of industries, and literally millions of individual enterprises. Between the American people and the glittering new world that has been dangled before their eyes, stand a lot of tough problems to be solved by the ingenuity of practical business men. Before any of the products of industry, for example, can actually reach the public, they must first be bought and distributed throughout the land by thousands of retail merchants. Until the retailers place the orders, goods cannot be produced. Upon the ability of the distribution industry to foresee and meet consumer demands, rests at least partially the fate of immediate post-war planning.

The dangers of forcing retailers to operate subject to regulations that threaten their existence, are becoming increasingly evident. Every retailer in this country will be directly needed to help re-establish normal civilian life after the war. Mass distribution will be the starting point of reconversion. If this fact is ever forgotten, dreams of great production will remain just that—dreams.

Washington at a Glance

By JACK STINNETT

MACKINAC ISLAND, Mich.—For the second time in four months, Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, of New York, walked into a conference of national importance and stole the show from some of the best politicians this country has—outside the White House.

First it was at the annual conference of state governors at Columbus, Ohio, in June; second, it was here at Mackinac Island where 19 governors, four senators and as many more representatives and GOP party officials assembled for the Republican postwar advisory council meeting. The jaunty, smiling young executive of the Empire state ruffled the waters of Lake Huron in a breezy hour-long press conference in which he didn't duck a single question or dodge one important issue.

Smoking cigarettes in a moderately long holder that made many of the press corps feel that they were questioning a young edition of the President, Governor Dewey laid down his thesis for postwar foreign policy in no uncertain terms. He referred to his previous declaration that the U. S. should join "other nations to secure the peace of the world, by force if necessary."

Continuing with a blast at the New Deal, which he said in effect, started off wrong and had been getting steadily worse for ten years on the domestic front, Dewey revived his theory that ex-presidents should be life members of the Senate; vice-presidents, life members of the House, and that a place should be found for all experienced government officials regardless of party affiliations.

Even when it came around to answering the query of "can you comment, Governor Dewey, on the report that Sen. Charles McNary has predicted that you will be the Republican presidential nominee next year?" Dewey didn't duck.

He said: "If the report is true, Charlie has been having a pipe dream." But when one veteran Washington political reporter observed: "Senator McNary has very few," Dewey joined in the general laughter.

I couldn't find a member of this council who would talk at all on the subject, who didn't feel that if the convention were held tomorrow, the floor fight would be between the backers of Thomas E. Dewey and Wendell L. Willkie. The alternative expressed was that the convention might be deadlocked and Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio; Gov. John W. Bricker, from the same state; Gov. Earl Warren, of California or some other dark horse might be advanced as the 1944 nominee. Some old timers however, scoffed at the idea. There could possibly be any deadlock.

All of which brings us back to the governor of New York. Some felt that the old line Republicans tried to relegate him to oblivion when they left him off the permanent foreign policy and international relations committee; made him a member of postwar enterprise industry and employment, and chairman only of the reform committee of government administration.

I have talked to Dewey since. If he's disappointed I couldn't discover it.

Methods of Treatment for Varicose Veins

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M.D.

CORRESPONDENTS frequently write me some such query as: "What is the treatment of varicose veins?" The very framing of the question shows a fundamental misconception. There are very few diseases for which "the treatment" can be applied. One of them is not varicose veins. If success is to be achieved, the case must be studied from every angle and the proper treatment which fits the individual case applied.

The injection treatment is popular and widely used. The principle of this treatment is that the inside walls of the vein can be irritated by a solution injected into them; they grow together, obliterating the vein.

The injection treatment is applicable to most cases of varicose veins and the result in most cases is good. The great advantage to the patient is that hospitalization is not necessary, nor any prolonged absence from work, because the injections are carried out in the doctor's office and after a period of rest after the treatment the patient can walk out.

Surgical Cases

There are some contradictions to injection and in such cases a surgical operation under local anesthesia is indicated. It is here that the experience and judgment of the surgeon are so useful—in the selection of cases in order to achieve ultimate success.

Varicose veins constitute quite a serious health menace. The condition is very common. A survey of over 500 employees of a large department store showed that 40 per cent of the men and 70 per cent of the women had varicose veins. This preponderance on the female side is not entirely due to child bearing, although that is undoubtedly a factor in the production of varicose veins because after the women who had borne children were eliminated there were still 60 per cent of the female employees with varicose veins.

Disease of Elderly People

Varicose veins are a form of degeneration of the circulatory system like hardening of the arteries. It would seem that men are more likely to degenerate on the arterial side and women on the venous side of the circulation because in this same group of department store employees 44 per cent of the men showed calcification in their arteries and only 18 per cent of the women. The entire series serves to show how prevalent circulatory degeneration is.

Varicose veins, like calcified arteries, are conditions of the latter half of life. Under present conditions of war living elderly people will naturally be called to take places at tedious standing jobs, which throw a strain on the veins of the leg and conduce to the greater frequency of varicose veins.

The mere presence of varicose veins is an indication for treatment because if allowed to go on, they develop complications such as the formation of clots in the veins, which is a hazard to the circulation, and they also produce bad nutrition in the skin with the eventual formation of ulcers.

From where I sit...

by Joe Marsh

"Jeep Nerves"—that's what Dan O'Neill calls the jumpy way some folks react to the strain of wartime living.

Not that Dan blames 'em. When you work 12 hours a day and travel in crowded busses—live in trailers and put up with inconveniences—it's only natural to get tense and irritable. "Folks must learn to relax," says Dan, "and take it easy."

And Dan thinks he has the formula. Soon as he's through at the shop he comes straight home, picks out the comfortable chair and pours himself a tall, cool glass of beer.

Then he sips it—slowly and appreciatively—like good beer should be enjoyed.

And by the time that glass of beer is gone, Dan says his disposition is as good as new... and the day's work seems well worth tackling again tomorrow.

It's a real effective formula. I know; I've tried it!

WATKINS E. WRIGHT

SYNOPSIS

DAM NORTH, young bachelor who recently converted an old Linville buggy factory into a war plant, becomes a "dilly" standby for the town's party givers, among them being

SUEAN POTTER, whose husband, Bill, has lately been breaking evening dates to "negotiate" a real estate deal with

ALICIA CARTER, a witty, flirtatious widow, Adam, unknowingly, is loved by his secretary,

RUTH MOOREHOUSE, who at present is having difficulty disquading the affections of

JACK VINTON, a mechanic in the plant, Adam, not being aware of Ruth's feelings, is just becoming intrigued with

BRENDA LEIGH, who is now enjoying an extended vacation in Linville, which she left several years ago to launch a journalistic career in New York City.

"Yes," Brenda replied. And you and Jack will probably be called upon to play the two juvenile roles."

"As an actor, I make a good tool-maker," said Jack.

"I love playing!" said Ruth. "But everybody's so busy nowadays, I don't see how we can spare the time for rehearsals."

"You'll manage," said Brenda. "Anyway, it's for the USO, and you can't turn Mrs. Platt down."

"But about those stories you want to write about Linville," said Jack. "You should turn your attention to Adam. He has more local history on the tip of his tongue than the Gazette has in a dozen files."

"So I've heard," said Brenda. "But Adam is too busy at the factory to talk to me."

"He finds time to play filler-in for absent husbands," said Jack. "So he ought to have time for you."

"Don't be silly, Jack," said Ruth. "Honestly, sometimes you talk like a matchmaker."

"I'd turn matchmaker for a fact," he said, "if I thought I could marry Brenda off to Adam. Now there is the perfect match. Mr. and Mrs. Adam North, living in the old Leigh house, Mrs. North writing well Southern yarns, and Mr. North running a factory and putting around his garden. Say, Brenda, do you know Adam likes to garden?"

"No, I didn't," Brenda replied. "And I'm not going to intrude any longer. The idea, neglecting Ruth and your own love affair while you try to marry me off to Adam North."

"Well, I still say it's a swell idea," said Jack. "And if you're honest, you'll say you agree with me."

"Adam's a fine man," Brenda said. "I grant you that. But modern thought I, be, Jack, I'm still mid-Victorian when it comes to proposals. I still think that proposing is the man's job."

"I reckon you're right," Jack agreed. Then, grinning, he added, "You know, of course, that 'asking Adam' is an old Linville custom."

"So I've heard," said Brenda. "Then why don't you join up and do some asking?" Jack went on.

"Maybe Adam would like being asked to marry. For a change, instead of being asked to fill in at dinner or a bridge party."

Brenda laughed. "I'll waste no more time listening to your nonsense." She got up and started toward the door. "Good night, you two—and pleasant dreams!"

"Same to you," Jack said, standing and watching her go. He sighed. "A damned fine gal if ever there was one," he said when he had resettled himself. "Adam North must be blind as a bat not to see it."

Ruth pushed back her chair and got to her feet. "If you're through trying to marry off people," she said, "you can take me home."

"Sure," said Jack. Then, as they went out into the street, he said, "Well, I'll at least be able to make love to you in the play, if we get roles."

"How do you know you will?" "We'll probably be cast as the romantic interest—that's why."

"But suppose we are cast as brother and sister?" "Heaven forbid!" Jack exclaimed. "I'm getting pretty tired of having you treat me like a brother."

Missionary Society Names Delegates to Presbyterian Meeting on October 8

All-day Meeting at First Presbyterian Church Notes Rally Day and Joint Meet

Delegates to the Presbyterian District meeting to be held in Frankfort, October 8, from the Presbyterian Church here are Mrs. Herbert Clickner and Mrs. C. R. Philhower. Alternates are Mrs. John Abernethy and Mrs. G. E. Bidwell. The delegates were appointed at the all-day meeting of the missionary society of the First Presbyterian Church which was held Wednesday in the church parlors.

The Foreign Mission Conference of the Presbyterian Church will be held in the church here on January 18, it was voted at the meeting. The meeting began at 10:30 A. M. for book study. This program was in charge of Mrs. John Abernethy, who gave the call to worship. The book for study is "For All of Life" by Willard H. Wiser and Charlotte Viall Wiser.

The prologue and opening chapter was given by Mrs. C. L. Musser and Mrs. M. L. Clark gave the next two chapters.

A most appetizing covered dish luncheon was served at noon under the supervision of the entertainment committee. The tables were decorated with vases of lovely fall flowers. Rev. Abernethy offered thanks. The little son of the Abernethys was also a guest for the luncheon.

All reassembled in the parlors at 1:30 for the regular monthly meeting with the president, Mrs. A. B. Murray in charge. Mrs. B. F. Davis, pianist, played a lovely opening number.

Mrs. Murray then read a poem, "Freedom" and the hymn "This Is My Father's World" was sung. The secretary, Miss May Duffee, read the minutes of the last meeting and three very interesting and appreciative letters received.

Varneys Honor 2 Sons at Family Dinner at Home

Mr. and Mrs. Orley Varney entertained with a family dinner honoring their sons, Corporal and Mrs. Bill Varney, home from Camp Roberts, California, and Pearl Varney, of Sedalia, Missouri. The dinner was held in their home on N. North Street.

After the meal, which was served family style in the attractive dining room, the guests spent the rest of the afternoon visiting.

Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Chester Browder of Mechanicsburg, Miss Lola Browder of Springfield, Mrs. Mary Taylor, Mr. Frank Gates and Mr. Howard Varney.

Junior Varney, a third son of Mr. and Mrs. Varney, was recently inducted into the Marine Corps and is stationed at San Diego, California.

16 WSCS Circles View Movies of Settlement In Columbus, Wednesday

Charles W. Mason, Superintendent Of South Side Settlement, Speaks To Over Three Hundred Present

Women of Grace Church were given first hand information about the well known South Side Settlement in Columbus, Wednesday night, at the annual meeting of the 16 Circles of the Women's Society of Christian Service, held in the church, when Charles W. Mason, superintendent of the settlement, addressed the women and showed moving pictures depicting activities of the settlement.

For years the women's organizations of the church have given strong support to the South Side Settlement, which is located in the factory area near the southern corporation line of Columbus, and the address of Supt. Mason and the pictures shown proved very enlightening to the large number of women assembled for the event.

The motion pictures were in color and included scenes from the kindergarten, showing the children at their activities and receiving a mid-morning snack of cocoa and cookies. Another most interesting shot depicted several of the children receiving dental treatment.

"You and groups like you are the ones who make our work possible, and we want you to know that it is a worth while work and that your support goes far in making better men and women of the boys and girls who pass through our settlement," Supt. Mason told the women.

He said the work is among the poor families of the south side in Columbus, and ranged all the way from Bible study and training in how to keep a home, to physical training for the underprivileged, 67 of whom were taken to camp this summer, and many of them had never been in the country, he said. Food, clothing and bedding are furnished many poor families.

"We are doing the things for the boys and girls which count later in life, by proper Christian influence," said Mason.

Speaking of the alarming rise in juvenile delinquency, he said that it is not so much the fault of the children as the fault of the parents.

"We need your loyal support and your prayers, and with God's help we will do all in our power to carry on the work where it is so badly needed," he stated.

Mrs. Mable C. Blessing, president of the Women's Society of Christian Service and who has a notable record of accomplishment during her three years as head of the organization, presided over the session.

To the three circles having the largest percentage of members present, Mrs. Blessing presented beautiful comforts of her own handiwork.

Mrs. Allen White's circle was first with 63 percent; Mrs. Robert Meriweather's Circle was second with 58 percent, and Mrs. Wayne Woodyard's circle was third with 50 percent of the members present.

VFW Auxiliary To Have Potluck Dinner October 6

A potluck dinner honoring prospective members will be held in Memorial Hall by the V. F. W. Auxiliary October 6. Members of the V. F. W. post will also be invited to attend the supper.

Mrs. Jess Whitmer, president of the auxiliary, is in charge of arrangements for the dinner meeting.

The Auxiliary purchased a $25 War Bond at their meeting Wednesday night at 8 P. M. in Memorial Hall. Several members of the Auxiliary also purchased bonds through the organization. The books of the treasurer were also audited at the meeting, which was largely a business session.

Hike Planned by Senior C. E.

A bicycle hike and Vester Service is being planned by members of the Senior Christian Endeavor of the Church of Christ on Sunday, September 19.

The members are cordially inviting all the young people of the church to the affair whether they are members of the society or not. The group will meet at the church at 1:30 P. M.

Reid-Stuckey Reunion Is Held At Griffith Home

The Reid-Stuckey reunion was held at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Griffith on the Hayes road, and around thirty-five members were present for the most enjoyable day.

The delicious basket dinner was served in the basement recreation room of the attractive home and one long table and several smaller ones centered with lovely arrangements of fall flowers, were placed for the convenience of the guests.

Following the delightful dinner hour, the guests were favored with a motion picture film, shown by Rev. Bryon Stewart of Columbus. The film was of great interest to the group due to the fact that some of the pictures were of local points of interest and other interesting places visited by Rev. Stewart on various vacation trips.

Mr. Simon Stuckey and Mr. Orlando Reid than gave very interesting talks on subjects of interest.

Mr. Reid Skinning of Wilmington than gave an interesting explanation of the mechanism of a model airplane built by himself, and demonstrated the workings of the plane. Mr. Skinning is a high school student at Wilmington High School, and has been commended upon his ingenious work in aviation several times.

Guests present were from New Albany, Columbus, Wilmington, Jamestown, Bookwalter and this city.

New officers elected were as follows: president, Mr. Joe Stuckey of Wilmington, vice president, Mr. Will Reid of Jamestown; secretary, Mr. Frank Skinnings; and treasurer, Mr. Robert Elliott of this city.

REMEMBER

-the BIG invasion days are yet to come!

ITALY has surrendered. But, we here at home must not forget for one careless minute that the road to Berlin is long and hard, and will one day be clogged with the bodies of men . . . many of them Americans.

We must keep in mind, night and day, that much blood will redden the soil of countless little Pacific Islands before we read that Japan has quit.

Meanwhile, the war goes on. And every time the watch in your pocket ticks off one second . . . the war costs $3,000.00!

Three thousand dollars a second! 265 million dollars a day! Nearly eight billion dollars a month! And there are many, many months of hard and bitter war ahead of us!

War Bonds must provide a great deal of the money your Government needs. That is why YOU must do more than buy your regular amount of War Bonds. Right now, while the 3rd War Loan is on, YOU should dig deeper . . . should buy at least one $100 War Bond EXTRA!

The attack is in full swing. At last our side is doing the attacking! And you, and we, and all of us, must "BACK THE ATTACK!"

So forget that Italy has surrendered . . . and keep in mind that Germany must be beaten . . . that Japan must be beaten . . . and that YOUR MONEY must help do it!

PARTIAL RELIEF FOR CONGESTION IN CITY SCHOOLS

Two More Teachers Added To Take Care of Increase in Two Buildings

With the employment of two new teachers and establishment of a bus schedule from Eastside to Rose Avenue schools, congestion caused by the registration of 134 students in the first grades of Eastside and Sunnyside schools has been relieved. A. B. Murray, superintendent of city schools, announced today.

Mrs. Robert Minshall is in charge of the former first grade room at Sunnyside which now houses the overflow of the first and second grades there, a total of 35, 22 of which are first graders and 13 second grade pupils.

Miss Kay Williams is using the auditorium at that building to teach a full first grade of 40 pupils. There are 62 enrolled in the first grade at Sunnyside. Mrs. Florence Preston, second grade teacher, remains in her old room to teach the 41 second grade pupils not in the class taught by Mrs. Minshall.

No pupils will be transported by school bus from Sunnyside to other buildings as was done last year, Murray pointed out.

Thirty-five first grade pupils will be taken by bus from Eastside to Rose Avenue school daily, where they will be taught by Mrs. Chester Clay, newly hired to take care of the overflow. Buses bring pupils to and from the Eastside building before and after both morning and afternoon sessions, he added.

The congestion, Murray said, was caused by the unusually large number of families with school age children who have moved permanently into the community. Most of these families have settled in the areas surrounding the two schools where the congestion was greatest, he added.

The shifting was worked out at a meeting of Murray and the principals and faculty of Rose Avenue, Eastside and Sunnyside schools and was put into operation Wednesday afternoon, when the first bus load of children was taken from Eastside to Rose Avenue.

WORKERS BUY BONDS TO PAY FOR BOMBERS

PIQUA, Sept. 16—(AP)—Employees of the Lear Avia, Inc., manufacturers of airplane parts and radios, have bought sufficient bonds in the third war loan drive, in addition to pay-roll bond deductions, to purchase between two and three B-24 heavy bombers. In their honor, a bomber will be named "Learavian" at a ceremony at Willow Run, Mich., later this week.

Sabina Community

Williams-Mizelle

The marriage of Clark Hubbell Williams, Pl. Sgt. U. S. Marines, son of Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Williams, of Sabina, and Le Von Osborn Mizelle, Independence, Va., was quietly solemnized by the bridegroom's father, in the Sabina Methodist Church, Saturday, September 11 at 3:30 P. M.

Miss Avonelle Brown, church organist, furnished appropriate music for the impressive ceremony.

The happy couple came in from the Southland Thursday morning and preferring a quiet wedding, arrangements were completed almost without notice.

However, friends sensing an opportunity, soon placed the church in beautiful order for the occasion.

The Rev. and Mrs. Horace S. Williams came in from Ft. Wayne, Ind. Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Dabe, of Sabina, were attendants.

Sgt. Williams is well known here through his association with the Young People's Work and the Conference Grounds during several years.

The bride though unknown in Sabina, won her way happily. She is a graduate of the College of Women at Greensboro, N. C.

Delightful refreshments were served to the wedding party at the parsonage home of Dr. Williams. Mrs. Williams being assisted by Mrs. Naomi Thompson, who were also present at the wedding. The newly-weds will go immediately to Morehead City, N. C., where Sgt. Williams is stationed.

Sparks-Haines

The marriage of Miss Mary V. Haines, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Noel Haines, of Sabina, and Mr. Harold Sparks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sparks, also of Sabina, was solemnized Sunday, September 12 at 8:30 A. M. in the beautifully decorated Methodist Church.

Dr. J. C. Williams performed the impressive double ring ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. C. Dabe, of Xenia, were their only attendants.

Processional and recessional marches were played by Miss Avonelle Brown.

Miss Haines chose a becoming green suit for her wedding, completing her costume with black accessories. She wore a red rose corsage.

Following the ceremony the bridal party was served a wedding breakfast at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Sparks left immediately for a short wedding trip, and on their return will go at once to housekeeping in their newly furnished home on South Howard Street.

Both are graduates of Sabina High School and Mr. Sparks is engaged in business in Sabina.

The whole community joins in heartiest congratulations and best wishes for their happiness and success.

Mrs. Henry Entertains

Mrs. Willard Henry entertained Thursday with a delightful dinner party and included as her guests, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. N. Greene with Mrs. Alice Telfair and Miss Hannah Greene, of Wilmington.

Annual School Reunion

The annual Reunion of the Wayne Township School was held Sunday at the school building under the leadership of the president, Mr. Lon Rhonemus and Mrs. E. M. West, as secretary-treasurer. These two having been at the head of this organization for the past nine years.

Former school pupils of bygone years were present from Greenfield, Fincastrle, Wilmington, New Vienna, Hillsboro, Highland, Sabina and Lees Creek.

A most bountiful basket dinner, with a variety of delicious viands was served at the noon hour.

A delightful impromptu program was enjoyed and all listened intently to some of the older pupils, who were present, tell of their school days and describe the school building, where they attended. Many, many changes have taken place since those days.

Miss Arythe Jean McClure furnished a lovely program of solos, playing her own accompaniment.

The following officers were chosen for the new year: President, John Bowen; vice president, Mrs. Cleo Bean; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Catharine Leaverton.

Retiring officers were: Mr. Rhonemus and Mrs. West.

Mr. and Mrs. Rhonemus, of Sabina, were in attendance.

Hosts for Lovely Party

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Littleton and son, Barth, entertained Sunday evening with a lovely dinner party in honor of their houseguests, Mr. and Mrs. George Longthorne, of Los Angeles, Calif., the latter being a sister of Mrs. Littleton and Mr. E. A. Smith, of New York City.

Guests enjoying the delicious food and delightful evening were:

Mrs. and Mrs. W. J. Smith, of Xenia; Mrs. F. J. Smith, of Wilmington; Dr. and Mrs. Wm. L. Wead, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ort, Mrs. H. L. Littleton, Mr. and Mrs. F. Clarence Chance, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Mills, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Waddell and Mr. Walter Shoop.

Priscilla Sewing Club Meets

The Priscilla Sewing Club held its September meeting at the home of Mrs. V. B. Wilson Friday afternoon, with Mrs. L. E. Whinery as a guest with club members, Mrs. O. M. Darbyshire, Mrs. F. M. Clarke, Mrs. Earl Haines, Mrs. Forrest Thornhill, Mrs. Mayme Reeder, Mrs. John Van Pelt, Mrs. C. E. Rice, Mrs. A. J. Darbyshire, Mrs. Naomi Thompson and Mrs. Zella Anderson.

Delightful conversation was enjoyed over needle work and at the close of the happy afternoon, Mrs. Wilson served a delicious luncheon assisted by Mrs. Whinery.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. J. Eugene Dabe entertained as dinner guests, Friday evening, Sgt. Clark Williams of Morehead City, N. C., and Miss Le Von Mizelle of Independence, Va.

Miss Frances Phelps came from New York City and spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Phelps.

Miss Mary V. Hayes of Mill-Edgeville, was the Saturday evening dinner guest of Miss Jean Morris.

Mrs. Naomi Michaels of the Borum Road was a Sunday dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Thacker.

Mrs. Mayme Reeder is spending this week with her children, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Chitty in Xenia. Mr. and Mrs. George Bernard returned last week to Ft. Worth.

CAN'T KEEP GRANDMA IN HER CHAIR

She's as Lively as a Youngster—Now her Backache is better

Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys. The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes show there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 million of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Texas, after an extended visit with Clinton County relatives. Mrs. Charles Shadley with her daughter, Mrs. Robert Ferguson and children, of Xenia, returned Monday from a week end visit with Nathan Shadley in Dayton.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Wilson spent Sunday in Wilmington and visited with Mrs. Frank Strong at the Probascio Rest Home.

BUY WAR BONDS

None of us will be completely happy until the day of Victory. The day our boys are back; our sons, brothers and husbands. We want our way of life to go on, and we're fighting to make sure it does. We want Jim or Bill (you know his name) to be sitting right there in his easy chair with his pipe or studying in his own room. We want to have friends in for dinner again... and a big roast beef for them. We want to be able to take a long drive in the country, buy a new car, have fun, be happy. We want to live again on that sunny side of things of which Coca-Cola, itself, is such a symbol. There are so many things we want back. Yes, so many. None of them will come unless we win. All, and more, will come when we win. The War Bonds you buy will hasten the day... the day of Victory.

NEW MEMBERS TO BE INDUCTED AT LIONS CLUB

District Governor Norman McLean To Preside at Induction Meeting

District Governor Norman McLean will officiate at next Tuesday's meeting of the Lion's Club here, it was learned today. Five new members will be inducted into the club at that time. They are Dana Kelley, W. W. Humphreys, Charles Orr, Bill McCoy and Richard Willis. Kelley and Humphreys have been attending meetings but have not yet been inducted because they affiliated themselves with the organization immediately after the last induction of new members. With these five men, the membership will be boosted to 39.

The date of the meeting, September 21, has been set aside by Lion's International as 100 percent attendance week. President Harold McCord told members of the board of directors at a dinner meeting at the country club Tuesday night. He urged the attendance committee to "exert every effort to get every member present" at the meeting to be held next Tuesday.

McLean was a guest at the director's meeting which was also attended by the attendance and membership committees of the club. Elie Kauffman was another guest.

Past President John Sagar is in charge of the program at the next meeting which, he said, has not yet been fully worked out.

Youth in command, is the significant theme of Walter Wanger's production, "We've Never Been Licked," coming Sunday to the State Theatre. Keyed dramatically to America's most exalted traditions and America's victorious progress on the war fronts of the world, the Universal picture has its chief locale in Texas, at the Texas A. and M. College, which has trained more U. S. Army officers than any other American institution.

The graphically filmed story is enacted by a cast of youthful celebrities including Richard Quine, Anne Gwynne, Noah Beery, Jr., and Martha O'Driscoll, all of whom are said to have contributed inspired performances.

Outlook Brightens for Streets Here and Roads

RESTRICTIONS ON MATERIALS ARE RELAXED

Repairs and Resurfacing Program Expected To Be Expanded Next Year

The streets of Washington C. H., county and state roads in Fayette County probably will receive more extensive repairs and resurfacing next year since restrictions on the use of asphalt and road tars for street and highway construction and maintenance have been lifted.

This belief was held by Edwin Ducey, city manager; Robert Willis, county engineer and Frank Cook, of the state highway department here as they pointed out the removal of barriers on bituminous materials will have no effect on their road building and maintenance programs this year, although they anticipate expansion of the programs next year if the bans still remain off.

The federal petroleum coordinator has lifted restrictions on the use of asphalt and road tars for street and highway construction and maintenance, State Highway Director Hal Sours said, adding that "local governmental units now may purchase the materials without certificates of necessity."

Bituminous materials largely used by all three road systems include asphalt emulsion—which now may be secured without the use of permits—tars and slow, medium and rapid curing materials. The slow and rapid curing mixtures have been restricted in their use. No restrictions were placed on using medium cure, but the government requested engineers to substitute asphalt emulsion whenever possible.

"You can't work with bituminous materials (such as asphalt and tars) in the winter—it's been tried, but it just doesn't work," said Willis when he pointed out that the last really safe date for using such materials on resurfacing and construction is October 1, although work is sometimes continued as late as October 15. He explained that the funds from gasoline and motor vehicle license taxes which are used for maintenance and construction in the county already have been exhausted. The county road program absorbed 291,000 gallons of bituminous materials on a total of 75 miles of road.

"We've had just about all we needed," Ducey commented, adding: "Besides, if you do have permits to get the materials and can't obtain them because they aren't available, it's just like having lots of red meat stamps and an empty butcher shop." He said the city had permits for and had purchased 55,000 gallons of bituminous material for patching and surface treatment of 23 miles of city streets. "Most of the city streets are in pretty good shape. We just patch holes and repair damage done by frost heave now," Ducey said, continuing with the statement that if and when more material is available, more streets would be repaired and treated.

Cook said the state highway department has been able to get all the material it needed and had experienced no difficulty in getting stone, as had the other two systems. "We had about all we needed, but we haven't much on hand now," he commented on bituminous supplies. The highway department has used 125,000 gallons of bituminous material on the 25 miles of road it resurfaced and patched this year.

At a material cost of $450 per mile, 70 miles of county roads have been surface treated this year, Willis said, adding that five miles, on the Harrison road, were constructed at a material cost of $2000 a mile. All the money for this work was obtained from gasoline and motor vehicle license tag revenues which

Willis pointed out that reports indicate that gasoline tax revenues, which form 60 percent of the county road funds, may be cut 30 percent next year. A similar cut of 10% in the motor vehicle license tag revenues which make the other 40 percent of the funds used for construction and maintenance, is expected. Willis declared that this cut would curtail work on the county roads proportionately with the lowering of funds which it would bring about.

County roads on which the resurfacing was done this year are the Stafford road from Bucina Vista to the county line, Anderson from state route 70 to state route 62, Lewis from road 27 to state road 38, White Oak from Bloomingburg to road 117, Cook-Yankee from Madison County line to Thornton Lane, Washington - Waterloo from Paint Creek to state route 277, White from U. S. route 22 to road 145 and Prairie from state route 70 to state route 734. Work was also done at various points on the Marchant-Lutterell road, West Lancaster, Upper Jamestown, Gregg, Reid, Wesley Chapel, Bloomingburg-New Holland, Danville, Washington - Waterloo, Harold, Washington - Good Hope, White, Pisgah, Stafford and Greenfield - Sabina roads. There are 238 miles of county roads.

For the first eight months of 1943, a total of $15,109.51 has been spent on maintenance and repair of the 36 miles of city streets and alleys, Ducey said. Twenty-three miles have been treated this year—the program is nearly complete, he commented. The funds for city repair and maintenance also comes from gasoline and motor vehicle license tag revenues. He quoted $12,000 as the estimated revenue from gasoline tax for 1943, basing the figure on the $8,178 received for the first six months of the year. The 1942 receipts from that source were $14,524.75.

Revenue from motor vehicle license tag taxes for the first six months of this year is $11,632.10. The total for last year was $25,327.84. No bonds or assessments were issued this year to defray street maintenance expenses.

Ducey said that the proposed resurfacing of the tennis courts at Gardner Park is "definitely out" for this year at least, because materials for the purpose could not be obtained. He made no statement as to future plans. Hard surfaced streets and avenues in Washington C. H.

treated this year are Market, (east and west) Temple, Paint, Rawling, Gregg, Western, Rose, Peabody, Eastern, Court (east and west) East, Columbus Avenue, Washington Avenue, Willard, Yeoman, Broadway, John, Clinton Avenue, Leesburg Avenue, Circle Avenue, (east, west, north and south) Cherry, Newberry, Oak, Second, Third, Fourth, Elm (east, west, north and south) Henkle, Hickory, Chestnut, Jupiter, Mulberry, Madison, Van Deman, Oakland, High, Highland, Draper, Green, Grand, McKinley, Fairview, Dayton, Briar, Millwood, Lakeview, Pearl, Forest, Delaware, Bereman, Walnut, Lewis, Wilson, Blackstone, Olive, Florence, Worley, Carolyn Road, Church, McElwain, Grove, Hopkins, Short, Sycamore, North (south and north), Main, Hinde and Milliken, totalling 23 miles—131,000 feet.

Crack filling and patching on 25 miles of the 142 miles of state highways in the county took 125,000 gallons of bituminous material; 8,000 gallons were used for patching. The cost per mile of the work was approximately $3000, Cook said in discussing the department's activities this summer.

Work has been finished on route 35, the Chillicothe pike; route 22, Sabina pike; route 38, Bloomingburg road and route 70, Greenfield pike. Cook said, adding that some work remained to be done on the CCC highway, on route 35 toward Dayton, on route 22 to Circleville and on route 38, from Bloomingburg to London.

BARNEY GOOGLE AND SNUFFY SMITH

YARD BIRD SMITH IS IN THE HOSPITAL, SIR, WITH A KNOT ON HIS HEAD 'T' SIZE OF AN OSTRICH EGG

YES-YES-GO ON - WHAT HAPPENED?

THAT'S TH' MYSTERY, SIR - THERE WERE NO SIGNS OF A STREET FIGHT - JUST TH' KNOB ON HIS NOGGIN AN' HIS SHIRT TORN OFF CLEAN AS A WHISTLE

SHIRT TORN OFF !!! GREAT SCOTT !! THEN THERE WAS SOMETHING CONCEALED IN THAT PATCH, JUST AS I SUSPECTED !!

ETTA KETT

THERE HE IS - THE BIG AIREDALE

SHE'S FAINTED! NOWS MY CHANCE TO KISS HER, BEFORE SHE COMES TO.

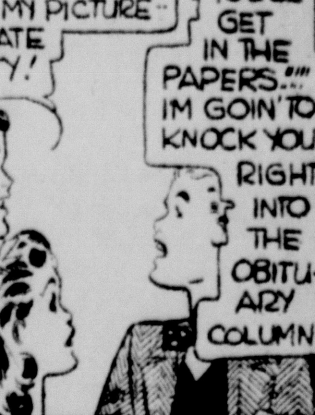

HELLO - YOU BACK?

YEAH - AND YOU CANT SOCK ME AND GET AWAY WITH IT?

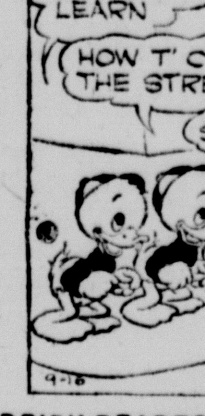

SOIRRY, YOU TRIED TO TAKE MY PICTURE AND I HATE PUBLICITY!

DONALD DUCK

SURE, WE'D BE GLAD TO LEARN

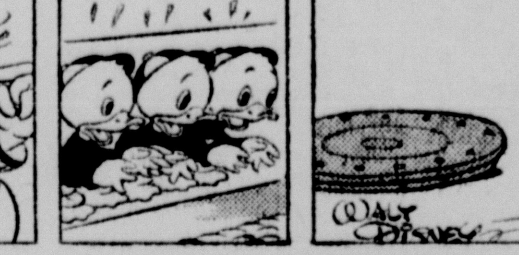

OKAY, AS Y STEP OFF THE CURB, Y LOOK BOTH WAYS!

KEEP LOOKIN' T' THE LEFT TILL Y GETIN THE MIDDLE OF THE STREET....

AND THEN Y START LOOKIN' T' THE RIGHT, AND.....

HEY, UNCA....

BRICK BRADFORD

WONDER WHAT'S BENEATH THAT TRAY? MORE POISON GAS?

THERE'S ONLY ONE WAY TO FIND OUT!

WELL, THERE'S BEEN NO EXPLOSION - SO FAR!

GOGH! WHAT A BEAUTY!

POPEYE

THERE'LL BE NO MORE SCHOOL, I'VE GOT SOME MARBLES I TOOK FROM THE CHILDREN-DID YOU BRING YOURS, POPEYE?

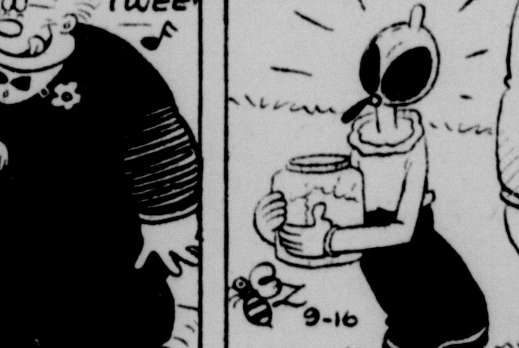

THEY'S WORK TO BE DID FIRST. PROF. EELSWEAT

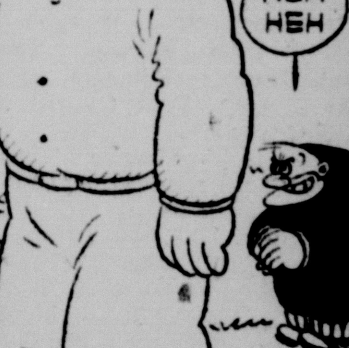

WE HAFTA FIND OUT WHICH SPECKS OF SEADUST ARE HISKORY, CHEMYSKERY -

THEN - NO MORE SCHOOL

WONT YOU HAVE SOME BIRDSEED? TWEET TWEET OH TWEET

MUGGS MCGINNIS

SAY GRAMPS, I'M STUCK ON AN ARITHMETIC PROBLEM

YOU KEEP WORKING ON IT, SKEETER AND YOU'LL EVENTUALLY SOLVE IT!

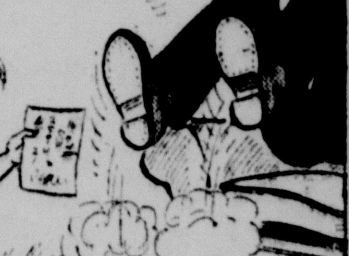

IT'S TOO TOUGH, GRAMPS, LISTEN! IF I START OUT WITH $5.00 AND SPEND 15¢ FOR TOBACCO AND 5¢ FOR JELLYBEANS, I HAVE $3.80 LEFT! IS THAT RIGHT?

NO IT ISN'T SKEETER YOU'D BE SHORT SOME MONEY.

BUT I'M NOT GOING TO TELL HOW MUCH!! YOU TRY TO SOLVE IT YOURSELF, AFTER ALL IT'S YOUR HOMEWORK, NOT MINE!

LITTLE ANNIE ROONIE

WE'LL GO AND VISIT THAT POOR LITTLE SICK MONKEY AND WE'LL PUT THE BANANA AND PEANUTS WHERE HE KIN SEE THEM

AND EVEN IF WE CAN'T TALK MONKEY TALK, WHEN THE MONKEY SEES THE BANANA AN' PEANUTS - HELL KNOW WE'RE FRIENDLY

AND WE'LL LOOK HAPPY AT THE MONKEY LIKE WE THOUGHT HE'S NOT AS SICK AS HE WAS YESTERDAY

AN' I'LL EAT A COUPLE OF PEANUTS IN FRONT OF HIM AND THEN HELL SEE I LIKE THE SAME THINGS HE LIKES
